

Rethinking Biblical Marriage and Sexuality: A challenge to the church to rethink the traditional views of marriage and sexuality and return to a biblical perspective..

The traditional marriage has been held up as as a foundational principle for the United States of American, Western Civilization, and for the the church universal. No one has seemed to ask the important Question. Is traditional marriage and sexuality actually biblical? This book seeks to answer the question by looking at the scriptures in the historical cultural context in which it was written. It also shows how traditional marriage came into being. The answers may not be what you expect. The question we need to answers first is whether or not to base our lives on a biblical view or a traditional view. Several revisions have been made to correct grammatical errors and make it easier to read. Feedback is welcome: anancientprogressionalist@gmail.com
