

A Photographer on the Hajj: The Travels of Mohammed Ali Effendi Saoudi 1904/1908

The diaries of Muhammed Ali Effendi Saoudi, a civil servant and accomplished photographer, offer a rare glimpse of the Hajj through Egyptian eyes at the beginning of the twentieth century when the Ottoman Empire was on the wane and the advance of the Hijaz railway threatened to upset vested interests in the old pattern of pilgrimage. Saoudi twice accompanied the Amir al-Hajj, Ibrahim Rifat Pasha, attached to the official Egyptian caravan. His story of these journeys combines the thoughts of a devout Muslim with fine detail on the hardships and health hazards facing pilgrims, the high-level intrigues, and the ever-present dangers of taking photographs. The authors have compressed the diaries into a highly readable narrative with selected quotations, lavishly illustrated with Saoudi's remarkable photographs.
