

Elf Magic Mail: Book 1, The Original Letters of The Elf Queens Daughters with Commentary by The Silver Elves

In 1974, a pair of sisters--Arwen and Elanor--calling themselves the Elf Queens Daughters (EQD) emerged upon the Pagan/Wiccan scene. They wrote fascinating esoteric letters of elven lore and philosophy that, when they really got going, were sent out in groups of three every week. Within months of their first publication, many other kindred joined the sisters and established vortexes around the U.S. (and some outside of the US) where those interested, who had heard the Call, could write to awakened Elves. Among these vortexes was the Elves of the Southern Woodlands in Carbondale, Illinois, established by Zardoa who would, some years later after the sisters ceased writing them, take on the Dharma of creating the elf letters, first in Florida under the name the Sylvan Elves and later in California as the Silver Elves. Silver Flame, his faithful sister-lover companion, soon joined him and theyve been pursuing the Dharma ever since. This book is the first volume containing the original letters of the EQD --a Frasority of Elves and were contributed by the founders of the EQD, Arwen and Elanor, and the commentaries are written by the Silver Elves. We know you will enjoy reading these magical letters as much as we do and find the path of the Elven Way beautiful and enchanting.
