If only he agreed with everyones assessment that he was deserving of it. After all, no one but him knew of the sins hed committed. Instead of rebuilding himself into a man ready for a family, friendship and happiness, he sets forth to do some rebuilding of another kind. After all, if one deems himself helpless, why not be helpful? When he knocks on Morgan Smyths door, the last thing he expects is that rebuilding what is currently before him would prove to be such a daunting task.
