

The Botanical Garden 2004

Roger Phillips and Martyn Rix, pioneers in plant photography, have set a new standard for illustrated gardening books with publication of The Botanical Garden Volume I and Volume II. They've spent a lifetime collecting, studying and photographing more than 2,000 genera of temperate plants. The result is a unique collection of images and information which presents even common plants in a wholly unexpected way. Adapted from the books, the exquisite detail in The Botanical Garden 2004 is sure to delight gardeners and plant lovers everywhere.
