

Murphys Law 2002 Day-To-Day Calendar

Murphys Law is defined as a facetious or satirical proposition stating that if there is a possibility for something to go wrong, it will go wrong. Now, Murphy and some of his friends prove this law again and again with their sarcastic views about the laws of life. For example, theres Joys Rule of Garage Cleanups: Whatever needs to be moved cannot be moved until something else is moved first. Or Bentleys Observation: Any short line is still too long. Or Marlas Principle Of Retrieval: Anything mistakenly thrown in the trash will be retrieved only after the trash can is full and messy. Full of principles, maxims, rules, and observations on everything from daily chores to modern technology to human nature, this calendar will provide readers with a daily dose of cynicism.
