

THE PEARL (Volumes 9 to 12): A Journal of Faceti? and Voluptuous Reading

Locus Elm Press is proud to present William Lazenby's genre defining Victorian erotic periodical The Pearl. From the same infamous publisher that also gave us The Boudoir and The Oyster this licentious Journal of Faceti? and Voluptuous Reading contains the classically debauched tales of Lady Pokingham and Miss Cootes Confession and My Grandmothers Tale, and La Rose Damour interspersed with bawdy tales of utmost lasciviousness and songs and poems equally graphic. Volumes IX to XII, anonymously written during 1879 and 1880 and considerably presented hear-in as originally published with a fully searchable index, is a sound source of titillation. With tales including lesbian tribadism, gamahuching, group menages, the finest lashings of BDSM tossed in for good pleasure, and ALL manner of front and rear deed and device in between this collection will be sure to pique the interest of those a fan of the genre. Crack it open... its very hot inside. Volumes 1 to 4, Volumes 5 to 8, Volumes 13 to 16, and Volumes 17 to 18 (plus the Christmas Special) are also coming very soon to Locus Elm Press.
