Celebrating the Quiet Child: A Must Read for Every Parent, Teacher, Mentor, Sports Coach, who is Interested in Raising the Self-esteem of Kids And Teens From Prasenjeet Kumar, the author of Quiet Phoenix, the Amazon #1 Bestseller, comes a sequel, and a biography for kids aged 9-12 years, that no one who deals with introverted children should miss. The underlying theme of the book is that just as a Phoenix Bird is hard-wired to be reborn from the ashes of her ancestors, her tears are meant to cure wounds and she symbolises undying hope and optimism, so is your Quiet child built for persistence, creativity, self-discipline, and for displaying a knack for self-learning, high emotional intelligence and an impeccable sense of moral responsibility.??? Instead of cherishing such rare traits Introverts are sadly often misunderstood by almost every one.* Parents worry if their children prefer spending time in solitude, probably day dreaming.* Teachers presume that if a child hesitates to answer questions, she must be having some kind of learning or even social disability.* Quiet Children have difficulties in making friends, with their classmates seeing them as weird, rude or arrogant.* They are seen as over sensitive to mean comments or bullying.* They appear to lack aggression or as some say the will to fight back.* Overall, introverted children seem to be more flustered about almost every facet of life in noisy and large Public Schools.??? Any advice that Quiet children should be more outgoing, sociable and active seems to be counter-productive. Any aggressive follow up on this advice often results in your Quiet child losing her self-esteem, forcing her to become even more withdrawn.??? With fables, stories and real incidents from the authors own childhood, Quiet Phoenix 2: From Failure to Fulfilment is a memoir for teens and kids that Reiterates that introvert Children being asked to behave in a more extroverted fashion is like asking a young Phoenix bird to behave like an Eagle. Every child is born with some unique traits. The challenge is: how parents, teachers and friends can recognize, nurture and enhance those powers so that every child, quiet or loquacious, becomes a winner.???

And to help them rise above everything; to lead them towards a path of happiness leaving behind all old memories of pain and isolation; and to turn them into lifes winners.
