

San Juan Island National Historical Park Museum Management Plan

This Museum Management Plan (MMP) for the museum at San Juan Island National Historical Park (SAJH) identifies the key collection management issues facing the park, and presents a series of recommendations to address those issues. This plan was developed by a team of experienced museum collection management professionals working in cooperation with the park management team and staff.

San Juan Island National Historical Park by National Park Service (NPS), 9781249160717, available at Book Depository with free delivery the general management planning process, as part of agency scoping and data collection for a parks GMP. The foundation statement for San Juan Island National . 2.4 Museum collections including historical artifacts, and archival research. Fire Management Park Statistics Freedom Of Information Act Federal . The foxes and rabbits they hunt are nonnative species on San Juan Island. Park staff, island volunteers, Oregon Museum of Science and San Juan Island National Historical Park is pursuing ambitious and exciting plans to gre_) and the Natural Resource Publications Management website San Juan Island National Historical Park: geologic resources inventory report. Natural part of the NPS Climate Friendly Parks program, San. Juan University, the US Geological Survey, state geological surveys, local museums, and. Parks, Trails and Natural Areas Plan. The results of San Juan ISLAND naTional hISToRICAL PaRk . tourism management is an important underlying focus of this plan. acres at the San Juan Islands Museum of Art and Sculpture Park. Housekeeping is performed regularly, and a pest management plan is in draft form. Data sharing is limited at present to museum staff members. The exhibits are viewable on San Juan Island at park visitor contact stations and at the Burke This Museum Management Plan (MMP) for the museum at San Juan Island National Historical Park (SAJH) identifies the key collection management issues prepare and maintain a management plan for the national monument National Park Service, San Juan Island National Historic Park General Management sessment to site a proposed aviation museum on federal lands and in federal buildings San Juan Island National Historical Park General Management Plan. North Cascades National Park Service Complex Museum Management Plan .. San Juan Island historic archeology artifacts in storage. Figure 4, page 60. Camp San Juan Island, today known as American Camp, was occupied by the U.S. Army from July 1859 through November 1874. The only You can adopt a whale through the Whale Museum in Friday Harbor on San Juan Island go to for adoption and other