When the past and present collide Taya Kostas is a survivor. Shes clawed her way back from the hell she was subjected to at the hands of an undercover agent working for the U.S. government. Since then shes dedicated her life to preventing the same from happening to anyone else. Now her story has come full circle. Shes about to take the stand as the key federal witness in the biggest terrorist case the country has seen in years. But even though the man responsible for her nightmares is behind bars, the evil she escaped is still hunting her. When fate places her safety in the hands of the man who saved her life once before, together they race to stay one step ahead of a lethal enemy. Hell risk it all to save her. For five years Special Agent Nathan Schroder has been battling his inner demons, but lately it seems like hes on the verge of losing that fight. Then Taya is suddenly thrust back into his life and in imminent danger, so he steps in to protect her. Hes never forgotten her or the way she held up under fire, and this time hes not letting her walk away. The terrorists determined to prevent her from testifying will stop at nothing to silence her forever. She might be in official protective custody, but shes way more than a job to Nate. When the enemy finally strikes and her life hangs in the balance, hell do anything to keep her safe.
