

The Butterfly Room

Inspired by the recent efforts of the Joyful Heart Foundations NO MORE campaign and an existing relationship with InterAct to help raise awareness around domestic violence and LGBTI rights, proceeds from this book will be donated to Refuge the UKs largest provider of specialist domestic violence services as well as Southall Black Sisters, Stonewall, Womens Aid and the charities highlighted above. For years Vikram and his two sisters have lived in the shadow of their powerful father Rohan. His wife Lakshmi has watched the family slowly disintegrate, living uncertainly within a web of fractured love, deceit and broken promises. Determined to change her own life and those of her children she is now faced with the most dangerous choice of all. A course of events will now place everything she loves, cherishes and holds sacred under direct threat, plunging the family inexorably towards a journey of pain, self-realisation and ultimately heart breaking tragedy. Heartbreaking and deeply moving... The Indian Express
