

The Two Gentlemen of Verona [Annotated]: The Hermestes Edition

Shakespeare's The Two Gentlemen of Verona, a sort of comedic precursor to the much more famous Romeo and Juliet, is now available in this annotated edition from Hermestes Publications. Valentine loves Silvia and his friend Proteus loves Julia, but once Proteus sees Silvia all honourable thoughts go out of his head and he becomes hell-bent on wooing her. He betrays Valentine and claims that Julia is dead. Shakespeare's intriguing study of the foolishness of those who are in love, or who think they are in love, is an enduring and enjoyable tale.
