CONTAINS ALL FOUR BOOKS (An Amish Spring, An Amish Summer, An Amish Autumn, and An Amish Winter). Perfect for Christmas! Its springtime in Lancaster, Pennsylvania and Drusilla Riehl has just turned eighteen. While she attended youth gatherings and singings in the past, something feels just a little bit different now. As the eldest child, she has a lot of responsibilities, especially with her aging grandparents living in the smaller house attached to the Riehls farmhouse and with Drusilla's mother expecting a baby soon. Follow the story of this young Amish woman as she comes of age in the springtime of her life, balancing her commitment to faith, family, and friends. The Amish Seasons Collections, a four-part series, follows the story of Drusilla Riehl as she passes through the seasons of life. This collection will be sure to delight as you learn more about the Amish religion and culture from Sarah Price, one of the leading bestselling authors of Amish Christian fiction who bases her stories and books on authentic experience growing up Mennonite and living among the Amish.
